

Hope Survives Tragedy in 2025

On a beautiful Saturday morning in June, our school director, Jean Amorcer (aka Fan Fan—pictured at left and right), and a few of our staff went to the Williamson campus to prepare for a fun field day the next week to celebrate the end of the school year. Fan Fan was optimistic that we would be able to move classes back to this campus following a period of peace in the area. However, this peace was shattered when gangsters from the nearby mountain villages kidnapped and murdered Fan Fan, Daniel (security guard) and Lano (groundskeeper). This senseless evil devastated their families and left the school and community reeling. Fan Fan, especially, was known for his compassion, honesty, dedication to education, and love for the Lord. He left behind a wife and young daughter. Daniel (at left with his daughter) and Lano also left family without a husband and father. We are still raising funds to continue to help these families in the aftermath of the tragedy and appreciate your support and prayers for them!

After hearing from many of the parents of our students, who pleaded for school to open in the fall, we found a building to rent in a safer location, appointed one of the teachers as principal, and opened the school year again.

Through constant roadblocks, funding shortfalls, fear of violence and daily uncertainty, we believe that God has once again provided a way for the mission to move forward.

Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for partnering with us to continue to give hope to these children of God in Haiti! We pray for a blessed Christmas and Happy New Year to all of our donors and their families.

"The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth."

KEEPING PROMISES!

When we closed our orphanage a few years ago, we promised that we would continue to support the former orphanage kids as they moved back to their communities to live with relatives. We promised regular food support, books, uniforms and tuition through graduation, and then support for follow on schools or grants for businesses. We have followed through with our promises, with less than twenty left to graduate from high school, of the over seventy that we started with. Though it has not been easy, over the years we have also helped many of them attend college or trade schools, and provided numerous small business grants. Thank you for helping us to keep our promises!

Pictured above are just a few of our former orphanage kids in school uniforms for the current year, working in their businesses, or in college. We pray that we will be able to see all of them through, with your help. Thank you!
